Background

Julia Spitzbart has worked for SCWP Schindhelm since 2016 and was admitted to the Austrian Bar Association as a fully certified lawyer in August 2019.

Before joining SCWP Schindhelm, Julia Spitzbart completed her legal practice in the public prosecutor's office and a district court in Vienna and worked as an associate in two well-known law firms in Vienna. She passed her bar exam in 2018 and did a secondment in a renowned international commercial law firm in London in 2019.

Julia Spitzbart graduated from law school (Mag.iur.) and completed afterwards her PhD in law in 2015 (both at the University of Vienna). During her studies, she did numerous internships in Austria and abroad (South Africa, USA).

Dr Spitzbart received various awards, scholarships and stipends for her achievements during her education and studies.

Expertise

Julia Spitzbart advises domestic and foreign companies on issues of intellectual property and industrial property rights (trademarks, designs, patents, etc.), IT law, copyright and data protection law. In addition, she has extensive experience and expertise in corporate and contract law.

Due to her secondment in a renowned international commercial law firm in London, she also has a broad knowledge of international law.

Julia Spitzbart publishes regularly in her practice areas and is also the certified data protection officer of SCWP Schindhelm.
