Background

Alina Pfeiffenberger has been working for SAXINGER as associate at the Salzburg office since 2025.

She completed her law degree at Paris Lodron University in Salzburg from 2019 to 2023.

She undertook her legal training in the Higher Regional Court of Linz, at the District Court of Hallein, and the Regional Court of Salzburg.

During and after her studies, she gained experience working for renowned law firms specialising in public procurement and commercial law, as well as in a notary's office.
