Background

Eva Trentmann has been working as a lawyer for Schindhelm in Osnabrück since 2019.

After her admission to the bar in 2017, she initially worked at the law firm Brödermann Jahn in Hamburg, specializing in international business law.

After studying law at the Universities of Göttingen and Münster and passing the 1st state examination in 2014, Eva Trentmann completed her legal clerkship in the district of the Higher Regional Court of Hamm. She passed the 2nd state examination in 2017.

Expertise

Eva Trentmann advises primarily in national and international M&A transactions and represents foreign and domestic companies in acquisition, sale and joint venture projects.

She also advises in all areas of corporate law and general contract law. This also includes the representations of clients before state courts and (international) arbitration tribunals.
